

TEREZIE FIALOVÁ

Terezie Fialová is one of the most prominent Czech solo piano players. Despite her age, she has been a partner to many Czech and international soloists (J. Bárta, V. Hudeček, C. Chapelle, H. Milne, J. Mráček, J. Špaček, R. Patočka etc). Her debut performance with an orchestra was at the age of twelve. Until the age of twenty, she pursued a career of a violin player in an international merit parallel to her piano career. Terezie is a graduate of the Academy for performing Arts Prague (I. Klánský) and Hochschule für Musik und Theater Hamburg (N. Schmidt). She steadily performs on significant international festivals (Prague, Munich, Basel, Hamburg, Sarajevo, Paris, Madrid, Ankara, Istanbul, New York, Washington and many others) and is a member of Eben trio, with which she has won the international competition in Lausanne. She participated in Verbier Festival Academy 2013 in Switzerland as the only Czech piano player. Successful debut at international festival of chamber music in American Newport (2014) was described as „stunning performance and very bright future“ by critics. She is The Yamaha Artist of the Czech Republic.
